

Indigenous Disadvantage - NEWPIN Program

- Uniting Care Queensland proposes to establish NEWPIN (New Parent Infant Network)
- Aims to increase the reunification of children in out-of-home care
- NEWPIN focuses on providing emotional and practical support to families, empowering them to break the cycle of child neglect and abuse and to provide safe, nurturing environments for children.
- Seeks to address the over-representation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children in out-of-home-care
- Targeting families who have a minimum of one child aged under five and a half years old and is in OOHC
- Located in Cairns and two other locations in Queensland
- Benefits for target population are - improved emotional-wellbeing, familial relationships and social integration
- As at 30 June 2016 - 9,521 children were under Child Protection Orders in Queensland

Investment and return:

Demographic:

For discussion purposes only - not final position (as at 22/3/17)